1. Background

Shishuram Das College was established in 2010 to cater higher education to the students and people of a vast region of South 24 Parganas. Since its inception the institution has provided opportunities for quality education to the students belonging to the poor and middle-class families who cannot afford to go far off places for meeting the demand of higher education. At present this institution not only imparts higher education to the students of South 24 Parganas but it also serves as an important educational centre for the students who come from the adjoining and nearby districts of West Bengal that include East Midnapur, Kolkata, North 24 Parganas and Howrah.

Since its establishment the college has expanded structurally and academically, thus earning the reputation of having an excellent academic environment. The college is located within Diamond Harbour Block II area and it is surrounded by many reputed educational institutions. The college has a well-constructed building and campus that covers an area of about 5 acres of land. At present the college imparts higher education to a large number of students of Arts stream in nine subjects. This number is expected to increase in the future. A cordial and healthy teacher-student relationship and a learners-friendly atmosphere constitute the motivating spirit for all the members of this institution.

Fakir Chand College at Diamond Harbour, West Bengal, India, is a liberal Arts, Science and Commerce College, situated nearly 50 kilometres from Kolkata. It is affiliated with the University of Calcutta. It has 104 teaching staff, 54 support staff and more than 5,500 students. It is the oldest and largest college in the South 24 Parganas district of West Bengal. Recently, in November 2016, it has been accredited with a B++ grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC),

This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) is made on 11th Day of April 2023 between Sadhan Chandra Mahavidyalaya and Shishuram Das College for mutual cooperation witnesseth in academic exchanges, program development and research. This document establishes the guiding terms and principles of collaboration between the two organizations:

I. Legal Frameworks of Both the Organizations

Sadhan Chandra Mahavidyalaya, established in 2007, is a State Government-aided and affiliated college of the University of Calcutta. The College is included under Section 2(f) & 12(B) of the UGC Act, 1956. The institution has rapidly emerged as one of the most promising educational institutions in South 24 Parganas, West Bengal. With a strong focus on the dissemination of knowledge, the college offers Undergraduate Courses in Honours and General Courses for the B.A. stream. The institution holds a steadfast commitment to the all-round development of its students, aiming to cultivate their sensibility to beauty, harmony, value systems, culture, social justice, heritage, scientific temper, and the environment. Through this holistic approach, Sadhan Chandra Mahavidyalaya strives to shape self-reliant individuals who actively contribute to their communities. The College, having its campus at Vill- Harindanga, PO- Chaberia, PS- Falta, South 24 Parganas, Pin- 743504, West Bengal, India, is represented by the Principal of the institution, Dr. S. F. Haque, hereinafter referred to as the FIRST PARTY (which term or expression shall, unless excluded by or repugnant to the context, be deemed to mean and include its successor in office, representatives, administrators, and assigns).

Shishuram Das College, a liberal Arts College, is affiliated with the University of Calcutta. It has its campus at Vill- Bhusna (Near Sarisha), P.O. Kamarpole, P.S. - Parulia Coastal, South 24 Parganas, Pin – 743368, West Bengal, India. It is represented by its Principal, Dr. Dr.Nilesh Ranjan Maiti, herein after referred to as the SECOND PARTY (which term or expression shall, unless excluded by or repugnant to the context, be deemed to mean and include its successor in office, representatives, administrators, and assigns). Both these organizations will hereafter be referred to as Parties.

II. Purpose of the Agreement

Both the Parties are pleased to enter into an agreement to establish ties of academic cooperation in order to contribute to the achievement of their overall goals as institutions through the following, but not limited to:

1. Joint teaching and research projects.
2. Collaboration in the area of academic publications, research activities, field trips, etc.
3. Visits, training, and exchange of faculty, staff, and students.
4. Joint educational/vocational courses.
5. Joint consultancy, PhD supervision, scientific publications.
6. Co-hosting and participation in conferences, seminars, symposiums, and workshops.
7. Social and cultural programs.
8. Any other academic activity that is mutually agreed upon and is beneficial to both.

III. Execution of the Agreement

The specific activities to be carried out under this agreement will be stated in corresponding specific sub-agreements. Such specific sub-agreements, once approved by both parties, will be attached as annexes to this agreement.

The specific sub-agreements between both Parties will specify their objectives, conditions and ways of execution, financial support, the period the sub-agreement will be in effect, and administrative responsibility within each institution.

IV. Term and Expiration of the Agreement

It is understood that this agreement will come into effect after being signed by both Parties and will be established for a period of two years. After these two years, it will be mutually extended for the same period, unless one of the Parties expresses an intention (by written notification) to cancel the agreement at least 90 days before the expiry date. The amendment, termination, and expiration of this MoU will not affect the terms of activities ongoing at the time of notification of amendment, termination, or expiration unless otherwise agreed upon between the Parties.

Any additions, changes, or deletions to this document must be approved by the representatives of both Parties. All notices shall be in writing and shall be directed to these representatives.
