

SHISHURAM DAS COLLEGE

Department of Geography

Programmes Specific Outcomes (PSO)

PSO1: Ability to gain comprehensive knowledge of geomorphology, geotectonic, climatology, oceanography, and soil science. Also, they can know the concepts of social, economic, and population through urban geography.

PSO2: Ability to identify the rocks and minerals samples in the laboratory.

PSO3: Ability to learn the Survey of India topographical map and identify its various features and interpret them. Also, they find out the importance significance, and applications of the statistical data on the based on cartography.

PSO4: Ability to learn the application of modern instruments and mapping techniques to understand the variation of earth surface.

PSO5: Ability to gain knowledge of weather forecasting with the help of weather symbols, codes and weather data.

PSO6: Ability to testing of soil samples and determination of nutritional status of the identified soil will help them in agricultural practice.

PSO7: Ability to learn the modern techniques like satellite imagery and its application on a map.